

The diagram shows a rectangular layout with three main lines: a red line at the top, a blue line in the middle, and a green line at the bottom. The red line is the top edge of the layout. The blue line is a horizontal line across the middle. The green line is a vertical line on the right side. Arrows point from the text labels to their respective lines: two arrows point from the red line text to the top edge, one arrow points from the blue line text to the middle horizontal line, and one arrow points from the green line text to the right vertical line.
