

The diagram shows a rectangular page layout. A red line runs horizontally across the page, with two arrows pointing outwards from its center towards the top corners. A blue line runs horizontally across the page, below the red line, with a long double-headed arrow extending from its center to the left and right edges. Below the blue line, there is a green line with two arrows pointing outwards from its center towards the left and right edges. At the bottom of the page, there is text indicating the finished size and bleed dimensions.
